COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The new operator's license renewal applications for the next two years have been received from the Secretary of State. These are for anyone with a birthday on January 1 or later of next year. There will be a 30-day temporary license issued for use while the new plastic license is being processed. The plastic license will be good for two years and the state will send out renewal notifications prior to the person's birthday in 1966. The cost of the two year license is $5.00.

There were very few wash-outs of town roads during the high water last week and the damage was minor. The Civil Defense unit was alerted at the first stage of the high water, prepared to assist in any emergency. The local citizens band radio club was very helpful in checking water levels at various places in town and radioing the information to the Civil Defense office. This group also was on the alert from the first high water. One citizens band unit was set up at the Civil Defense office and conditions at any point in town were always available.

There is another leak at the West Bethel water works and it has not been located yet. The pump has run steadily for several days. The amount of water pumped the last few days is about double the normal amount required. This is the third leak this summer and the trouble seems to increase each year.

PLAY TO BE PRESENTED NEXT WEEK

With weeks of rehearsing behind them, the cast of the Bethel Players will present "You Can't Take It With You" at Odeon Hall, next week, Nov. 21 and 22.

Director of the production, Jafar-Khan Devlet-Muraz, has been assisted by Sue Farrar. Emily Saunders is serving as coordinator of the production committees which include the following: Finance, Louise Lincoln; Barbara Bryant and Clifford Laws; Publicity, Rosabelle Tift, Bettyann Hastings and Elizabeth Smith; Staging, Roland Glines, Bruce Bailey, and Warren Hastings; Property, Judy Haskell, Jan Stowell and Barbara Brown; Sound Effects, Constance Thurston and Mary Jane Brown; Costumes, David Thompson and Martha Sweatt; Make-up, Irma Thompson, Lyndell Thompson and Isabel Jacobs; Prompters, Nesta Littlefield, Phyllis Blake and Marilyn Parker; Usherettes, Virginia Cole, Linda Lord, Geneva Bean, and Gertrude Waldron; Calling Committee: Jean Jenkins, Ivy Bartlett, Martha Sweatt and Rose Rozek.

Everyone concerned with this production of the newly reactivated Bethel Players has been working unceasingly to make it a successful venture. With all the time and effort connected with a two night performance, and with hopes of a big boost for the Bethel Community Center Fund, the Players would still consider a third night's performance if the remainder of tickets should be sold out soon. They are still available at Bosserman's Pharmacy or from any Bethel Player. Support this new active community group who are working towards new recreational facilities for the children of the Bethel area. Purchase your tickets now!

L. Thomas Hopkins Speaker At Special Assembly

On Friday, Nov. 8, Gould Academy held an assembly with L. Thomas Hopkins as speaker. His topic was "Who Are You?"—directed at the student body. He wants the young people of today to meet their responsibility to themselves and their commitment to a better future for the peoples of the world.

Young people want subjects in school they can use—something of value, not merely fragments of someone else's experiences. They want teachers interested in them personally—not for them to just have a knowledge of their subjects. Instead of studying other people's experiences to find out who they are, teenagers must study their own experiences. Some feel there is no place in the curriculum for them to find out who they are and where they are going in the future.

Old values handed down are not effective — must learn to build their own set of values out of their own experiences. Here is a conflict—adults want a knowledge of subject matter learned in the schools; students want to learn about themselves—who they are, what they will become, what values they must build.

Dr. Hopkins made some suggestions for young people to follow: accept yourself as you are—the past is over; move forward from the present toward a better self; believe in people; accept the behavior of others—try to find out why they believe as they do; help them and yourself to develop better value judgments.

School Notes
The pupils of the Union School enjoyed two films, "Bicycle Safety" and "African Rhythm." Both films were very instructive.

Richard Wing, who is in the third grade had perfect attendance for the first nine weeks of school.

Those having 100% in spelling for 10 weeks in the third grade were all but 6 pupils out of 24.

We had one session Friday because of the fear of floods and being unable to return the children to their homes by night.

The Willing Workers held their hunter's supper, Nov. 6th, at the Union Church with a very good attendance.

After the supper Joseph Perham of Turner gave a talk on Mollycodd which was very interesting. Many stayed to hear this and questions were asked the speaker.

Phillip House of Bryant Pond played some numbers on the accordion and then followed it up with piano solos which turned into a community sing.

The funeral services for Carroll Cummings of Portland (formerly of Curtis Hill in South Woodstock) were held at the J. W. Andrews funeral parlor Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Felix Mayblom officiating. Burial was in the Finnish cemetery at West Paris.

At the hunter's camp on the North Paris road the men tagged two deer this week.

Mr. Hutchins of Bryant Pond also shot a deer in this section. Toni and Devens Andrews spent Saturday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Andrews. Ronald Lamb also spent the day with them.

Rebecca Andrews is home from Gould Academy this week end.

Mrs. Harlan Andrews attended the SPEBSQA Northeastern District Convention Quarter Finals and All Star Show at Portland recently with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Andrews.

Jackson Andrews and a friend went to North Quincy.

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Cor.
Lewis Cole was in town from Bethel hunting Saturday with no luck.

Mrs. Jane Baker and son, Randy, and her sister and three children were in town a couple of days closing up their home for the winter.

No school Friday because of the weather and high water.

We had a rainfall of 4.44 inches not as much as some of our neighbor stations report but the brooks and river were high and over their banks in places.

Many hunters returned home Saturday with no game owing to the bad weather.

Gerald Harrington is putting up a garage with the help of his father, Bernard Harrington, Eddie Daye and Bryce Yates. Little Edwick Yates stayed with Marshall and Alan Fleet Thursday while his mother, Mrs. Bryce Yates, took Darnita and Elden, to the dentist for a check.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Verrill were in town a couple of days closing up their cottage for the winter.

Red Noyes of Locke Mills went home Saturday without any game.

Carroll Yates and friends are in Ketchum hunting.

Roy Bennett and Roland Fleet started to put up snow fence but the weather stopped that for a few days.

MYF 7th AND 8th GRADE DANCES

The Bethel Methodist Youth Fellowship is again sponsoring dances for the 7th and 8th graders. About every other week, unless there is another activity, the group puts on a dance in the Community Room on Friday evening from 7:30 to 10:00. These events seem to be very popular with the young people who participate. However, in order to put on these dances they are in need of the support of the parents as well. It is necessary to have a few chaperones each time, and through the willingness of several of the parents, it is hoped that each one would have to fulfill this position only once or twice. The M. Y. F. is very grateful to those who have already assisted them and hopes that by this report there will be a better understanding of their program and more support. Otherwise, it may be necessary to limit these dances.

When you see a church that's empty,
though its doors are open wide,
it is not the church that's dying;
it's the laymen who have died;
For it's not by song or sermon
that the church's work is done;
it's the laymen of the country who for God must carry on.

SEN. MUSKIE REPORTS

Once again, the Senate has come to grips with the question of our country's foreign assistance program.

U. S. foreign aid has helped the nations of Western Europe recover fully from the devastation of WW II. It has provided military equipment and training which has enabled countless nations threatened by Communism to defend themselves effectively. It has helped free countries such as the Philippines and Malaya, meet internal threats to their independence.

U. S. economic assistance has helped many countries avoid undue dependence on Soviet aid. — Aid which would tend to bring them into the Communist orbit.

With all the positive results achieved under the program, it is obvious that several "problem areas exist. The men directly responsible for the program, including Maine's Frank M. Coffin, Deputy Director of the Agency for International Development recognize these problems. They have taken several steps to improve foreign aid operations. These include efforts to (1) convince our European and Japanese allies to assume more of the aid cost; (2) assure that countries which receive U.
S. military and economic assistance are making every effort to help themselves and are committed to the development of a democratic society; (3) continued.

25 MAINE 4-H'ers TO ATTEND NATIONAL
4-H CLUB CONGRESS

Twenty-five Maine 4-H club members will arrive in Chicago
the week end after Thanksgiving for one of the most important events on the 4-H calendar,
the National 4-H Club Congress
at the Conrad Hilton Hotel,
Dec. 1-5.

According to Margaret F.
Stevens, youth education specialist with the University of Maine Cooperative Extension Service, the Maine youths will be attending the event with some 1,500 other 4-H'ers.

These delegates are state, regional and national winners in 4-H projects and activities conducted during the past year.

vert a greater portion of aid funds from outright grants to loans; (4) encourage the expansion of overseas American private enterprise as a substitute for direct U. S. Government assistance; (5) increase the proportion of aid funds spent on U. S. manufactured products, now at a level of 85%
of total A.I.D. appropriations;
and (6) terminate our assistance programs to countries which no longer require such assistance.

Beginning in 1954, American foreign aid programs have been terminated in 17 countries.

The imperfections in the foreign assistance program should not be used as an excuse to abandon it or to use the meat-ax approach in cutting authori-zations and appropriations. The foreign aid program has served to build a bulwark for freedom in Western Europe. It is essential to the stability and democratic development of the emergent nations.

Our strategy for freedom rests on a tripod of internal economic vitality, a strong defense structure, and the strengthening of free countries in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.
Our foreign aid program is essential to the latter area. I support that program today as a realistic investment in freedom and security.

I believe that gradual cuts to reduce the scope and amount of our foreign assistance program can and should be made. I believe this because I have faith in our ability to demonstrate the superiority of democracy through example and good works.

CIVIL RIGHTS & LEGAL WRONGS

CIVIL RIGHTS BILL OF 1963

A package of legislation called "The Civil Rights Act of 1963" now is pending in the United States Congress.

The title is a misnomer. This bill is but ten per cent civil rights. The rest—90 per cent—is an extension of Federal executive power created at the expense of individuals, States, and municipalities. The bill is, in fact, the blueprint for a controlled system of life; it would establish new principles of law of drastic and far-reaching implications.

Consider the bill's principal provisions:

Under the cloak of "Civil Rights"—if this bill becomes law—the Federal government henceforth will dictate to whom you may sell or rent your home.

If you are the proprietor of an establishment that offers goods and services for use or hire—not just public accommodations (hotels, restaurants and such) but any kind of business that offers anything to the public—then, under this bill, your business would be subject to Federal Control.

In like manner, the bill covers all "contractors and subcontractors" in every program or activity where direct or indirect financial aid is rendered by the government. It will apply to you: If you borrow money from or deposit money in a government-insured bank; if you have an FHA, VA or Small Business Administration loan; if you are a realtor or developer; if you are a farmer who has financial dealings with the Farm Credit Administration, the Commodity Credit Corporation, or the Soil Conservation Service; or if you have Federal Crop Insurance, or deal with the REA or participate in any agricultural program involving Federal funds.

EMPLOYERS & EMPLOYEES

Under this Act all employers who participate in any of these programs to be told by a Federal "EEOC" whom they shall hire, fire, promote and demote, and how they shall handle their employees.

Under this Act Federal inspectors would be empowered to rule that racial or religious imbalance exists in a business. Thereafter, that business could not employ or promote the people it might prefer but only such "racial" or "religious" individuals as the Federal inspector designated. His ruling could require that "racial" or "religious" balance be obtained and apply to all job classifications: to common laborers, to skilled laborers, to the secretarial staff, to supervisory employees, and to vice presidents, all alike. A Federal agency would be prosecutor, judge, jury and executioner.

ENFORCEMENT

Enforcement of the Federal Inspector's findings would be simple: failure to comply would mean the end of all participation in Federal programs. Your loan could be called; you could be blacklisted for further loans from banks or financial institutions insured by the government; and you could be prevented from taking part in any activity that had to do with Federal financing. In certain injunctive situations, an employer could be jailed without the protection of a jury trial.

And that is only part of it.

PROFESSIONAL AND SMALL BUSINESS

"The Civil Rights Act of 1963" would also bring under Federal control individuals and businesses never before thought to be constitutionally subject to such regulations. Under the bill's Title II, any person who pays a business license to a State or municipality is subject to new regulations. The Act brings under Federal supervision almost every profession and every business—lawyers, realtors, small establishments, doctors, restaurants, gasoline stations, cleaners, hotels, motels and lodging houses. The smallest "sole proprietor" would be covered.

SCHOOLS

The bill goes even farther. If this Act should become law, between 100 and 200 statutes now in effect would be amended. Everyone who has dealings with Federal educational programs, for instance, would be subject to new requirements. Under the provisions of the Act, the United States Commissioner of Education could influence the transfer of children from one school to another—back and forth—until racial balance and religious balance existed. The correction of "racial imbalance" is of such importance to the sponsors that the phrase appears eight times in a single brief section of the bill.

Under the authority proposed in connection with Federal financing, school lunch programs, research programs, the building of schools, child-survivor hospitals—all such programs and organizations would be subject to new Federal controls.

THE SO CALLED "SOFTENING AMENDMENTS" PROPOSED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL KENNEDY DO NOT ACTUALLY CHANGE THE EFFECTS OF THE BILL.

WRITE CONGRESS

If you do not want such controls to apply to you, if you do not want your personal liberties snatched from you in the areas covered by the bill, if you want to preserve liberty under the law, then write to your Senators (both of them) and to your Congressman, today. Ask them, earnestly, to vote against this legislation. Tell them the truth, that 90 per cent of "The Civil Rights Act of 1963" is not Civil Rights at all, but Federal control. Do this and you will stop this grab for power. Fail to do it, and the legal foundation will be laid for the next revolutionary change in our country's history. You have "civil rights" too. Put them to use in a fight against this bill!

VOTERS

Now is that all. The bill boldly seeks for the Justice Department unprecedented powers to gain Federal control of the electoral machinery.

In 1961, the United States Commission on Civil Rights recommended that the Federal government impose new controls over the qualification and registration of voters. "The Civil Rights Act of 1963" would implement these recommendations.

It follows, then, if this Act were made law, a politically-minded Attorney General could go into an area where the voting might be close and swing the election. See how it would work: The language of the bill allows the Attorney General, at his own discretion, to file a "discrimination" suit and, without proof of his allegations, register tens-of-thousands of voters. The ballots, then, could be cast and counted and the election won, even though the Attorney General's action, later, were determined by the Courts to have been invalid.

UNIONS

The bill goes on in giving the Federal government new control over the hiring, firing, promoting, demoting and payment of employees; the Act also would give Federal Commissioners new powers to destroy not only the seniority system of unions, but also an employee's rights within the company for which he works. This is so because the Act gives full and unlimited power to Federal inspectors to determine who shall be hired, promoted, demoted or fired, whenever a charge is made that racial and/or religious imbalances ("discrimination") exists.

EVERYONE

A careful reading of this Civil Rights Act of 1963, we believe, will convince the impartial citizen that the administration is here "repealing" under an emotional and sinister appeal to "civil rights" to destroy age-old liberties of the individual and to cast off constitutional restraints upon Federal power. The bill would instantly and immediately affect every parent of school-age children, every businessman, every professional man, every home-owner, and every wage earner in the United States.

Many of the provisions of the Act, in our view, violate the Constitution of the United States. They are also contrary to existing decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States. But, no one can forecast what the Supreme Court would hold if Congress were to make "a legislative finding" in the areas mentioned—that is, if "The Civil Rights Act of 1963" were passed by Congress.

Come on down and sit in it.Only a car that looks as good as this could come between Chevrolet and Chevy II.
Come on down and stare at it.

New Chevelle! Malibu Sport Coupes

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four lusty engines—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses*! And if that makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a roomy car here. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too.

Sound good? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price!

Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.
